

WORKSHOP TECHNICIAN

Key responsibilities:

- setting the parameters of production lines and machinery
- testing technologies and manufacturing processes
- supervision of technological discipline in production
- methodical leadership of setters
- technological and professional support of setters in case of production problems
- responsibility for the quality and performance of production lines
- responsibility for regular machinery maintenance
- cooperating with the machine maintenance department, specifying service requirements and checking performance
- procurement of spare parts for production lines and their logistics within the department
- regular reporting to production lines
- collaboration with other colleagues in order to improve the production process
- machinery adjustments

Education and Experience required:

- technical background, or Mechatronic
- experience in machinery setting and setting-up production lines and machines
- experience in serial production (automotive or mechanical)
- knowledge of production line control systems
- ability to communicate, team player
- manual skills
- time flexibility
- willingness and ability to work in three-shift manufacturing process
- experience with leading of a small team of workers is an advantage
- the ability to solve technical problems independently
- user knowledge of PC
- desire to learn new things, a sense of responsibility
- communicative knowledge of German or English language is an advantage

What you can expect:

- background of stable and perspective company
- collaboration with a team of experienced modern like-minded colleagues who strive to success

- 13th and 14th salary
- 5 weeks vacation
- rich bonus program
- transport allowance
- subsidized meals
- life insurance or pension scheme contribution
- regular vocational training

Apply Now